

MAX CANADA HIRES DON REDDEKOPP

MAX Canada is pleased to announce that Mr. Don Reddekopp has joined the MAX Canada sales team, serving the Anabaptist constituency in Alberta, as the manager of Unger Insurance/Financial Services Inc. This opportunity emerged with the retirement of Peter Unger, who has served the MAX Canada members in Alberta since 2005, and the sale of his brokerage to Canadian Farm Insurance.

Mr. Reddekopp has experience with insurance operations since 1990 in both Saskatchewan and Alberta. He received his designation as a Chartered Insurance Professional in 2003 through the Insurance Institute of Canada and is a graduate of the NAMIC inspection school (2000). Reddekopp will be operating Unger Insurance from his home office in Calgary starting January 19, 2009.

Since 1999, Reddekopp has been employed with the Mennonite Mutual Insurance Co. (Alberta) Ltd. serving in underwriting, sales, marketing and promotion, constituency relations, claims adjusting, and loss prevention. "In addition to an excellent knowledge of insurance, Don brings strong interpersonal, organizational and administrative skills to this role," says Dale Bauman, Vice-President of Sales for MAX Canada. "Don will be a very strong asset to the MAX Canada sales team."

Don has been actively involved in church leadership within the Mennonite Brethren Community for the past thirty years in various roles including moderator, youth ministry and serving as the Administration and Finance chair of the Mennonite Brethren Conference (Alberta) for the past 5 ½ years. Don and wife Winnifred of 34 years, have three married children and eight grandchildren. Don describes himself as an avid reader and enjoys golf and hiking.
