MAX Hires Lloyd Miller as Mutual Aid Minister and Director of Denominational Relations

Beginning October 1, Lloyd Miller will join the MAX team as Mutual Aid Minister and Director of Denominational Relations in the United States. In this new role, Miller will hold the key point position for building relationships and managing activities involving pastors, conferences, districts and regional church leaders. Previous to MAX, Miller was the conference minister for the MCUSA Central District Conference.

As MAX continues to grow and develop, this placement will enhance the work of creating and sustaining wholeness being done both in the insurance and mutual aid ministry circles. This unique MAX program integrates insurance with broad mutual aid ministries that aid Anabaptists in physical, emotional and spiritual ways, providing support not only to MAX members (policyholders) who experience loss and fragmentation in their lives, but also to Anabaptists throughout North America, whether a member of MAX or not.

"I am very excited about Lloyd becoming a member of the MAX team," says Carl Litwiller, Executive VP of Mutual Aid Ministries. "The gifts and experiences that Lloyd brings to MAX will be invaluable in helping us bring our message of wholeness to the Anabaptist faith community."
